WOAH WAIT

Check 1-2

Here We Go

Take 99? 1000? I don't even know
I'm gonna get it this time haha

Lets Go

Mic Check

Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa (Whoa)
Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa (Whoa)
Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa (Whoa)
Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa

Wait how you gonna make me to go take
The whole bait not wanting to scrape of my own plate
No way is that going to be happening to me
You'll never catch me latching onto nobody, why?
Because I'm self-sufficient and independent
Although for me to get here took help
That I'll be grateful for till the day I fill my grave
Even then I believe the feeling will stay, we'll see..
Actually it'll be we minus me
Rewind these scenes I verbally paint
They're quite a sight to see
Feels like the bright white light beam

Inside my lucid dream I seem to subconsciously
Want to keep on following
Theres no wallowing without hope
About what tomorrow brings
When you've taken enough days on end
To cultivate your faith
I believe in fate and destiny
Also in putting max effort to live life incredibly Waking up with purpose is my recipe
To lessening the stress sent to me
Without structure life has a tendency to get messy
Am I impressing with what I said?
Or messing with your head?
Got you caught in the fog regressing
Wishing the messages sent
Wouldn't get addressed yet again

I'll be the inspiration you need in life
To those who perceive me to be
The MC unlike many that you've seen
Really more like any that you've seen
Feel me your psyched and appreciative
My exciting psychic ability's
Incapable of fleeing the scene
Before the people feel free
From the countless blessings I receive then leave
In recordings to lead the league in every s-t-a-t

Its sick how they're glorifying my name
For the way I say I play the game today
What gets respect and my reputation to elevate
Is learning the reason the wording I'm speaking resonates
Don't hesitate to get your head straight
You got to if your a real renegade
Prepared to demonstrate how to educate
And help us all to elevate
As we seamlessly ascend today

Figuring out my brilliant style
So your feeling me now
And I make you go say
Woah Wait
I make you go say
Woah Wait
My words make you go say

Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa
Whoa Whoa Whoa Whoa
Whoa Whoa Whoa Woah
Woah Woah Whoa Whoa Wait

'Woah Wait' - Written & Recorded by RRIV aka The RaRity

Instrumental: Brock Berrigan - The Celebration Song

THE SKY FALLING

Oh yes you know
Oh yeah by now you know
Its so obvious that you know
Here we go here we go

The Sky Falling causes a centrifugal force
Of inertia thats sure to have you wondering
If you heard more terrific a voice
Hip-Hop Heads are deserving of choice
Full of variety kind of like
When you look at me
Supplying the beat
Undeniably with heat
I strive to be at my best
Even when low not wanting to express
Why I'm feeling so stressed
Hip-Hops top prospect
Only wants progress
For you and yours and me and mine
Reach deep down when needing a rebound in life
Travel up to the right side of the spectrum
Respect comes to those who give it and earn it
My wording served with purpose
Is generating virtuous verses

Bursting on the scene
Typically not reserved for dreams
Of folks still in their teens
Life experience is needed
For tonights lyrics to free them
Adolescents whos timeline
Has only reached its preliminary stage
Some say, "The RaRitys a sage
An old soul so ahead of his age"
Engage with the technique displayed
Remember where you were when you first heard it play
I pray it plays in your head for days at a time
And that my passionate rhyme
Helps those feeling low
In desperate need of cracking a smile
If your attracted to my style
Blast it loud and pass it around
Thats The RaRity I'm out for now
I'll be back no doubt no doubt no doubt

The Sky Falling - - Written & Recorded by RRIV aka The RaRity

Instrumental: MF DOOM - Camphor

TRYING TO COME UP

Mic check one two
Its The RaRity
Y'all need to know
The one coming up is The RaRity
Who's trying to come up?
Its The RaRity
The RaRity
Thats what I am, apparently (ugh)

Old school J Cole beat
Here we go
Listen up y'all

Here we go y'all

Trying To Come Up
Trying To Come Up
I'm Trying To Come Up
I'm Trying To Come Up

I'm trying to properly construct my life
But the devil keeps obstructing my light
Fighting the demons inside tonight
Though you might not even notice

I'll keep it going
Whether y'all wanna know this or not
Caught up in thought lost
Wanting to shoot my shot
But not confident enough
What the fuck is up? (hmm)
What's got me off kilter?
Wanting to filter out all this stress?
Messing with my head
Pessimism will lead
To nothing close to success
That's a guarantee from The RaRity
I've struggled and I'm struggling
Trying To Come Up in this game
I'm simultaneously hating and loving
What's this game of life all about?
Living in the moment while conscious of the future
Making moves creating a break through

I'll take you on my journey
Not worried if your observing
Every word I'm serving
Hurry there's surely
A sensation burning within your ignoring
It's there for you to begin exploring
Do it for you not for me

The RaRity's still coming
One day I will run shit
They bump it
Though they don't even know
What I'm discussing
Its something of a miracle to see
Me freaking the beat lyrically
My abilities leaving you in disbelief
Until you really see and feel me
Unwinding one line at time
Combining sublime rhyming on consignment
Equipped with attitude, confidence, and kindness
Conscious and competent when it comes to my art
Few impart this much soul and heart
Speaking truth in music gives me carte blanche
A stark contrast to what our assess today are jamming
Most industry music needs to get canned quick
'Damn Kid' is how they're reacting (Damn Kid)
When my jabs are landing
Again and again impacting with passion
Imagine if I hadn't tapped into this rapping side of me
What a tragedy that would be

Thank God I made time to create rhymes
To help us break away from our anxious
Day to day lives
Strive to find what drives you inside

To feel so fortunate for your life
Nothing can leave you in discontent tonight
Thought of my dream
Then brought it to reality
Gotta be why y'all are calling me
Way more than before
I began recording my story
For me to be heard reverse these words
To be sure why your lured by my allure
I'm sure my sounds smooth
As brand new velour
All sorts of fortunes have been struck
By what I conduct
As I construct
Contextualized concepts on the rise
For all conscious minds still alive
Not only do I want y'all to survive
I want y'all to thrive
In this life your blessed to live
One more day and night at a time
Come on lets ride surprised by the advised advice
Livening up the spot thats right
Because this is real Hip-Hop
Ain't nobody but God gonna make it stop
Watch as I break the mic
And drop it right in front of your face tonight
Keep watching to really copy why my hot speech

Has surpassed most of my Hip-Hop colleagues already
Its The RaRity and apparently I'm Trying To Come up

I'm Trying To Come Up

I'm Trying To Come Up

I'm Trying To Come Up

It's The RaRity and apparently I'm Trying To Come Up

But 'YA'LL STILL AIN'T READY'
